Report

Prologue

Nursing Education is one of the subject included in the curriculum of both PG and UG nursing courses by Indian Nursing Council, New Delhi. As both PG & UG students are future teachers and educators, who would be educating and training nursing students in college as well as clinical settings, it is important for them to inculcate the skills of teaching. Keeping in view the same background it's also important for them that they build up the skills in setting up of question papers based on domains of education. Hence it was decided to arrange one day workshop on 'Microteaching & Preparation of Blue Print' for PG & UG students.
